

Certificates of Insurance Now Available Online 24/7

(BIRMINGHAM — 2001 APR 03) MediaPlus Insurance Services, part of the Encore Risk Management group and a leading provider of consultative risk management services for the communications, media and entertainment industries wish to announce our working partnership with ConfirmNet where our clients will have the ability 24/7 to request, print and send via fax or email certificates of insurance at their convenience.

In time with the anticipated announcement of our new web-site in the next 60 to 90 days we anticipate any clients registered for the program to be able to access this new capability from our web-site. The future home for the new MediaPlus Insurance Services web-site is www.mediaplus4ins.com.

The Encore Risk Management Group Inc., will for now, serve as the parent or holding company for MediaPlus Insurance Services as well as offer value-added consultative services and cost-effective risk management solutions for corporate clients in industries outside of MediaPlus's already established areas of expertise.
